

REL 212 Introduction to New Testament

ROANOKE CHOWAN COMMUNITY COLLEGE (WEBSITE: www.roanokechowan.edu)

This course is a survey of the literature of first-century Christianity with reading from the gospels, Acts, and the Pauline and pastoral letters. Topics include the literary structure, audience, and religious perspective of the writing, as well as the historical and cultural context of the early Christian community. Upon completion, students should be able to use the tools of critical analysis to read and understand New Testament literature. This course has been approved to satisfy the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement general education core requirement humanities/fine arts.

Students will receive a syllabus from the instructor.

Students have access to their grades through Campus Cruiser.
